

The Bebuddies b'word prompt.

Suggested activities:

- Have each child take their b'word prompt and read the poem on the back and name the character and b'word.
 - Now have the child give an example that pertains to the b'word. Example: b'kind - have the child say what being kind is or share a time when they were kind to someone... person or animal.
- This can also be used as a story-telling prompt. One child begins the story using their b'word. Then the story continues around the room with each child adding to it using their b'word.
- Another game is to see who can guess the b'word and character from just seeing the image side.

NOTE: there are a total of 28 pages, two for each prompt (1 image and 1 stick).

How to make the interactive b'word prompt!

Step One:

Print out and color the outlined image side of the print-out.

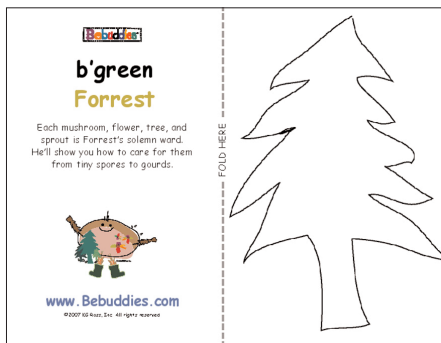

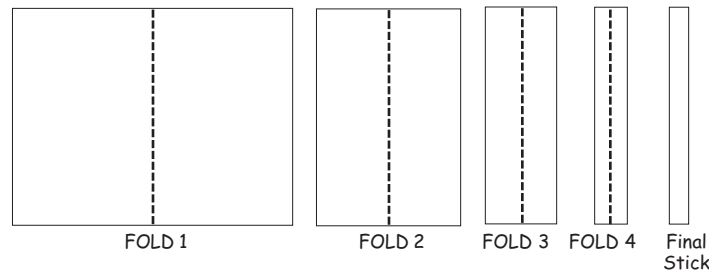

image side

Step Two:

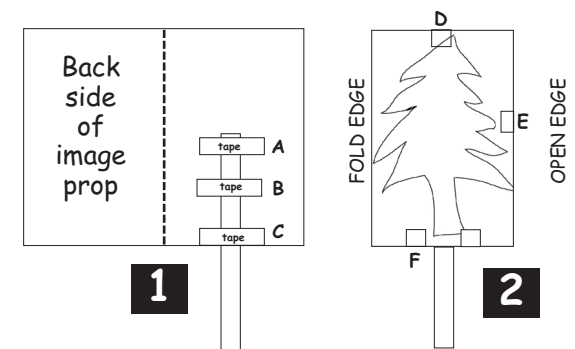

Take the stick printed sheet of paper and follow the fold lines. Keep folding in half until you make a stick and spot tape the open edge, or use a real stick.

Note: Using two sheets of paper will give you a stronger stick. Stop folding after fold #3.

Step Three:

1. Tape stick to back of image printout A, B, C.
2. Fold printout in half, covering stick, then tape closed all the open edges D, E, F.

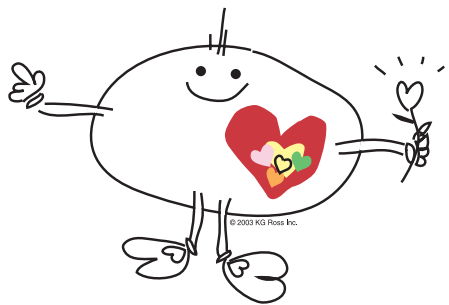

NOTE: there are a total of 28 pages, two for each prompt (1 image and 1 stick).
